WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

GEENA DAVIS

Academy Award-Winning Actress and Founder & Chair of the Geena Davis
Institute on Gender in Media

Academy Award winner Geena Davis is one of Hollywood's most respected actors, appearing in several roles that became cultural landmarks. Earning the 2006 Golden Globe Award for Best Performance by an Actress in a Television Series – Drama, Davis broke ground in her portrayal of the first female President of the United States in ABC's hit show Commander in Chief.

In 1989, Davis received the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress for her role as the offbeat dog trainer 'Muriel Pritchett' in Lawrence Kasdan's The Accidental Tourist. She was again nominated for an Academy Award and Golden Globe for her performance as 'Thelma' in Ridley Scott's Thelma and Louise, in which she co-starred with Susan Sarandon.

Davis went on to receive a Golden Globe nomination for Best Actress for her portrayal of baseball phenomenon 'Dottie Hinson' in A League of Their Own.

Few have achieved such remarkable success in as many different fields as Davis has: she is not only an Oscar and Golden Globe winning actor, but a world-class athlete (at one time the nation's 13th-ranked archer), a member of the genius society Mensa, and is becoming recognized for her tireless advocacy of women and girls nearly as much as for her acting accomplishments. She is the founder of the non-profit the Geena Davis Institute on Gender in Media and its programming arm See Jane, which engages film and television creators to dramatically increase the percentages of female characters and reduce gender stereotyping.

Davis holds honorary degrees from Boston University, Bates College and New England College. She currently resides in Los Angeles.

LEADERSHIP & EMPOWERMENT

- Her mission to work within the entertainment industry to dramatically alter how girls and women are reflected in media.
- Why and how being cast in Thelma & Louise changed Geena's life – and spurred her into creating a women's empowerment non-profit and becoming a lifelong advocate for women.
- How her Institute on Gender in Media is at the forefront of changing female portrayals and gender stereotypes, through research, education, strategic guidance and advocacy programs.

“ Her message about how women are portrayed in the media and under-represented fit powerfully with the YWCA's mission of empowering women and families in our community. She was also very down to earth, grounded and generous.

- CEO, YWCA

DIANA NYAD

Record-Breaking Endurance Athlete & Bestselling Author of Find A Way

At the age of 64, in her fifth and final attempt, Diana Nyad successfully fulfilled her lifelong dream of completing the 110-mile swim from Cuba to Florida on September 2, 2013. Upon completing her grueling 53-hour journey, a breathless Nyad told the world, "I have three messages. One is we should never ever give up. Two is you are never too old to chase your dreams. And three is it looks like a solitary sport, but it takes a team." Nyad has never been one to quit. In July of 2010, at the age of 60, she began her "Xtreme Dream" quest of swimming from Cuba to Florida, a task she had failed to finish thirty years previously. When asked her motivation, she replied, "Because I'd like to prove to the other 60-year-olds that it is never too late to start your dreams." Nyad was unsuccessful in her quest in 2010 and tried two more times 2011 and 2012 before completing the historic swim in 2013.

Back in the 1970's, Nyad was the greatest long-distance swimmer in the world. Her world records, such as circling Manhattan Island and crossing the 102.5 miles between the Bahamas and Florida, have led to inductions to many Halls of Fame, such as the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame.

Her book Find a Way: One Wild and Precious Life, was published in Fall 2015. She recently debuted the one-woman show, Onward! The Diana Nyad Story, in Los Angeles and Key West. Directed and adapted by Joshua Ravetch, who helped shape Carrie Fisher's show Wishful Drinking, Onward! has received praise among the theatre community.

PEAK PERFORMANCE

- Hear a unique, passionate story of this heroic adventure and the extraordinary life experiences that have served to carve her unwavering spirit.
- How Nyad achieved the "Xtreme Dream," at age 64, 30 years after she had failed to finish the same route.
- Why you should never give up and why you are never too old to chase your dreams.
- How to overcome obstacles, persevere and achieve goals that seem impossible.

“Nyad is living proof that, as she says, 'you can live out your dreams if you refuse to ever, ever give up.”

- People Magazine

KIRSTINE STEWART

Bestselling Author of Our Turn & Vice President of Media at Twitter

Kirstine Stewart oversees Twitter's North American media partnerships across all vertical channels, including television, sports, music, and news. Previously she served as Managing Director for Twitter Canada, leading Canadian operations and advertising business and partnerships. Prior to joining Twitter in May 2013, Stewart was the executive vice president of CBC's English services, CBC/Radio-

Canada, where she oversaw the network's English-language radio, television, and digital operations. Earlier, she was senior vice-president of programming for Alliance Atlantis, overseeing HGTV, Food Network, National Geographic, BBC Canada and others.

Stewart earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Toronto, and is a graduate of the Global Leadership and Public Policy for the 21st Century program at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.

Most recently, Playback magazine named Stewart as its Person of the Year and Strategy magazine recognized her leadership in taking CBC to Brand of the Year. She is @kirstinestewart on Twitter.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

A MODERATED CONVERSATION ON LEADERSHIP

What comes after you "lean in?" Kirstine Stewart, Twitter's VP of media partnerships--and recently named to Canadian Business's Power 50 of 2016 list because she "helps women discover their leadership potential"--draws on her own extensive experience to answer that question in smart and practical ways.

During this candid conversation Stewart will illuminate the broad strokes of the way forward for women, and her own principles of leadership, she digs down into the nitty-gritty of how she has managed to excel and to lead while staying true to who she is as a person.

"Kirstine's career is inspiring, and the ideas and strategies she shares about how to lead in times when change is the only constant are common-sense, down-to-earth and yet revolutionary."

DR. HEIDI GRANT HALVORSON

Bestselling Author, Social Psychologist & Associate Director of the Motivation Science Centre at Columbia Business School

Motivational psychologist Dr. Heidi Grant Halvorson has a goal: to help people and organizations achieve theirs. And with simple strategies rooted in scientific research, that's exactly what she does, empowering organizational leaders with proven tools for maximizing commitment, resisting distraction, devising effective strategic plans, seizing opportunities to act, and persisting in the face of setbacks or challenges.

Outstanding organizations, like outstanding people, reach their goals because of what they do, not just who they are, according to Dr. Grant Halvorson. An exhaustive study of achievement and motivation has led her to pinpoint the keys to mastering the art (and science) of execution — the nine things successful people do differently. They're not rocket science, but they are proven to help people reach their goals by focusing less on past failures and more on what really matters: commitment, planning, effort, strategy, self-control and persistence.

Heidi is the author of Focus: Use Different Ways of Seeing The World for Success and Influence, co written with E. Tory Higgins, has received rave reviews from Dan Pink, Robert Cialdini, Jim Kouzes, Dan Gilbert, Chip & Dan Heath, and many others. She is also the author of the bestselling Succeed: How We Can Reach Our Goals and Nine Things Successful People Do Differently. Her latest book is No One Understands You and What to Do About It.

Dr. Grant Halvorson is a member of the highly selective Society for Experimental Social Psychology. She received her PhD in social psychology from Columbia University.

PERCEPTION & BEHAVIOUR

- Why other people almost never see us as we see ourselves.
- The unconscious biases and assumptions that perceivers almost always make.
- Learn the three “lenses” of perception – Trust, Power, Ego – and how they influence what others see in you.
- How to choose the right language and behaviours to send the message you are actually trying to send.

“ Being an authentic leader means being perceived authentically. Halvorson masterfully combines research and story to outline why we’re misunderstood and how to be seen for who we really are.

- Seth Godin, Author of Linchpin
